

Dear Friends:

I would like for us all to remember R&B singer Teena Marie and her family in our prayers today. Teena died in her sleep last night of unknown causes. We all know the rough road that she traveled and it is my prayer that God will have mercy on her soul.

So many of our young people aspire to live the glamorous life - but many have no clue what goes on behind the scenes in Hollywood. It's up to us to teach and guide them.

Fire and Desire was my favorite Teena Marie song - I am sure you have yours, too. Today, let's reflect on the life of Teena and keep her in our prayers.

God Bless You All,

Cedric
